

Traditional Osteopathic Medicine PLLC

Presents

BASIC PERCUSSION HAMMER COURSE

Friday May 20, 2022 – Sunday May 22, 2022

Friday July 22, 2022 – Sunday July 24, 2022

Based on the life, exploration, and osteopathic practices of Robert C. Fulford, D.O., this course describes the power of healing concepts which expand on the teachings of A.T. Still. Dr. Fulford developed new techniques using the percussion hammer, which he pioneered. This course will allow participants to grasp the far reaching osteopathic healing concepts that were the essence of the old doctor.

Pre-Requisites* 40 Hour Cranial Course taught by D.O., so participants have developed the hand sensitivity and anatomical understanding necessary to successfully comprehend course materials.

CME* 24 credits NMM Specific AOA Category 1-A CME anticipated.

INTERMEDIATE PERCUSSION HAMMER COURSE

Friday June 24, 2022 – Sunday June 26, 2022

Friday September 30, 2022 – Sunday October 2, 2022

The main concepts and procedures taught in the Basic Course will be reviewed. This Course is created to expand knowledge and develop skills to realize that the Living Bioenergy Field is the place for the Osteopathic Physician to put their primary focus And to further the principles of vibration and the percussion hammer.

Pre-Requisites* Basic Percussion Hammer Course. When taken? Taught by whom?

CME* 24 credits NMM Specific AOA Category 1-A CME anticipated.

COURSE DIRECTOR: Richard W. Koss, D.O. graduated from what is now ATSU Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine in Missouri, is Board Certified in Family Practice and Certified in Special Proficiency in Osteopathic Manipulation. He worked alongside Dr. Fulford to design and teach percussion hammer courses during the final decade of Dr. Fulford's life. Dr. Koss has continued to teach Osteopathic Healing, Fulford Philosophy, and the use of the percussion hammer.

LOCATION: Three Cedars Osteopathy in Auburn, Washington is approximately 45 minutes southeast of Seattle offering a unique and enriching retreat experience near Mount Rainier. Breakfast and lunch are provided on campus, dietary restrictions are honored. Course fee: $1100. Contact Monica Haines, D.O. mhainesdo@icloud.com for further information and registration.

